

Shahid Munir Ahmad

MBBS, DPM, FRCPsych

United Kingdom

He is currently working in ELCAS, Burnley General Hospital as a consultant Child and Adolescents Psychiatrist, Child Mental Health Services, East Lancashire Hospitals NHS Trust (United Kingdom) and clinically leads a T3 specialist Child Mental Health Team that delivers a high quality service for young people and their families living in East Lancashire District. He has clinical responsibilities of assessment and management of the following disorders: Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders, Depressive Disorders, Eating Disorder, Schizophrenia and Early Onset Psychosis, Bipolar Disorders, Post-traumatic Stress Disorders and Obsessive- Compulsive Neurosis. He's leadership in teaching innovations has been driven by philosophy of integration with NHS provision, direct impact on clinical practice, improvement of current and future child mental health work force. He has therefore, aspired to establish and deliver training at all relevant professionals, services and interagency levels. He is Educational Supervisor – ST2 (SHO) Psychiatry, Speciality Doctors, T3 MDT and medical students as well as MRCPSych Examiner (Royal College of Psychiatrist, London). He had active contribution in the following National Researches: Gender Identity Disorders, CAPSS Study, Royal College of Psychiatrist (2012-2013); Conversation Disorders in Children and Adolescents, CAPSS Study, Royal College of Psychiatrists (2009-2010) and Bipolar Disorders in Children and Adolescents, CAPSS Study, Royal College of Psychiatrists (2009-2010). He is member of "Specialist Eating Disorders Group" of Royal College of Psychiatrist, British Medical Association, Medical Defence Union, Association of Child Psychology and Psychiatry and Manchester Medical Society.