

Stojan Bajraktarov

Ass. Professor, MD, PhD

Macedonia (FYR)

Born on 1967 in Strumica (FYROM). Graduated at the Faculty of Medicine, University St. Cyril and Methodius, Skopje. He had post-graduate training on PTSD interventions (WHO) and obtained both MSc (the Public Health School) as well as PhD (the Medical Faculty) at the University “St. Cyril and Methodius” Skopje “. He attended to numerous trainings and educational activities in the international centers of expertise in many countries (Croatia, Serbia, Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Slovenia, Montenegro, Italy, Germany, Austria, Turkey, South Africa, Switzerland, Denmark, Greece, Scotland) as well as on educational and training activities organized by the World Psychiatric Association (WPA), Mediterranean Association for Community Mental Health, World Association for Psychosocial Rehabilitation, Geneva Initiative, Hamlet Trust London and other organizations. He is a part of continuous educations in the field of Psychiatry at the national level, organized both by Ministry of Health and Clinic of Psychiatry and had numerous trainings organized during international and national congresses. Since 2009 he is Assistant Professor at the Medical Faculty (University of Skopje) and Medical Director of the Clinic of Psychiatry (University of Skopje). He was working as psychiatrist in the Community Mental Health Center at the Psychiatric Hospital “Skopje” (2001 – 2009). He holds a position of the WPA Zone 9 Representative since 2014. He obtained many duties and activities at international level: Project Officer in Country Office Skopje (WHO Regional Office EURO, 2000-2008), representative of the Government of Republic of Macedonia in the Team for EU Accession, WHO National Mental Health Programme (AIMS study), OSI Network Meeting for Human Rights (Cape Town, South Africa), WHO technical expert for monitoring and evaluation of the Mental Health Strategy and Action Plan in Albania (WHO/EURO Mental Health Programme). He created many programs and activities about deficiencies in the mental health services and lack of human rights of people with mental illnesses. He was member of the Scientific Board of the Trieste Summer School on Community Mental Health. He has several activities in anti-stigma and human rights projects collaborating with many NGOs and networks. He was member of many organizational and scientific congresses committees and has been received many educational fellowships. He was WHO Project Manager for Community Mental Health in the European Region (2000-2008), WHO international expert for monitoring and evaluation, international expert (2008-2012) in DAAD Project for organization and implementation of network of social workers in SEE, as well as other EU Projects in SEE (2002-2009) and European Council consultant on police and penitentiary reform (2015-2017). He is author and co-author of more than 80 publications in peer reviewed journals, and author of 7 books in the field of mental health, including book for students of the Medical Faculty (University “Goce Delcev” Stip). He is co-author of many textbooks (mostly in the field of community mental health).