

Aleksandra Dickov

Professor, MD, PhD

Serbia

She is a Full-time Professor of Psychiatry at the Medical Faculty in Novi Sad. She is psychiatrist and subspecialist of forensic psychiatry. She is Chief of Department for the addiction diseases of the Clinic for Psychiatry at the Clinical Center of Vojvodina.

She is the author and co-author of 17 professional and scientific books. She published a large number of scientific and professional publications, of which 20 were published in indexed SCI journals. Over 90 professional and scientific papers were announced at international and domestic meetings. She has been a lecturer in international specialist schools of the European Center for Peace and Development of the United Nations. She participated in the realization of several projects.

Mentor is in over 70 student, graduate, master, specialist papers and doctoral dissertations. She was a member of over 50 commission for the assessment and defense of graduate, master, specialist papers and doctoral dissertations. She is a reviewer in many prestigious journal.