

Alma Džubur Kulenović

Ass. Professor, MD, PhD

Bosnia and Herzegovina

She is Psychiatrist, subspecialist in Psychotherapy, Director of Neurology and Psychiatry in the University Clinical Center Sarajevo, Head of the Department at the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Sarajevo.

As the best student throughout all study years of the Zagreb University Medical School she was awarded with the President of the University Award and “Dragiša Perović Foundation Award”. She has twenty one years of experience as an attending psychiatrist in clinical and research activities. She presented professional and scientific papers on numerous congresses and meetings nationally and internationally and published numerous articles in peer reviewed journals nationally and internationally. In the Web of Science (WOS) her articles have been cited 77 times as well as she was reviewer for a number of peer reviewed (including Current Content Journals). She is Regional editor of Croatian Medical Journal for Bosnia & Herzegovina

She has been involved as a researcher in two European Framework FP6 projects as well as Principal investigator in DAAD, GHR and FP7 funded international research projects.

Her experience was important in the activities in the reform of mental health services in Croatia and Bosnia and Herzegovina through the activities of the project of the University of Illinois at Chicago and the Mental Health Project of the Federal Ministry of Health in Bosnia and Herzegovina and was regional expert in the Stability Pact Mental Health Project.

She is Principal investigator in the DAAD funded international project ‘Molecular Mechanisms of PTSD’ (University of Wurzburg, University of Sarajevo, University of Zagreb, University of Tuzla, University of Mostar and University of Prishtina).

She has excellent organizational experience in preparation of several international congresses and symposia

She is representative of the Department of Psychiatry in the Chamber of Physicians of the Canton Sarajevo, Secretary General of the Psychiatric Association of Bosnia-Herzegovina and was Secretary General of the Association for Biological Psychiatry/Psychopharmacology in the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina (until 2017)

She is Assistant Professor in the Department of Psychiatry and Medical Psychology of University of Sarajevo Faculty of Medicine, Assistant Professor in the Master Program of the International University of Sarajevo, Head of the Department of Psychiatry and Medical Psychology of University of Sarajevo Faculty of Medicine and Director of Neurology and Psychiatry in the University Clinical Center Sarajevo.