

Gordana Milavić

M.D., F.R.C.Psych.

United Kingdom

She is a Consultant Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist at the Maudsley Hospital, London.

From 2006 to 2012 she was the Clinical Director for Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services of the South London and Maudsley NHS Foundation Trust.

Dr Milavic specialized in psychiatry and child and adolescent psychiatry at Guy's and St Thomas Hospitals in London. She has been a Member of the Royal College of Psychiatrists in London, UK since 1980 and Fellow since 1996.

Dr Milavić's interest in the organisation of child and adolescent psychiatry services has led to her appointment to the post of Co - Chair of the Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Section of the World Psychiatric Association (2011 to date).