

Marija Raleva
Professor, MD, PhD

Macedonia (FYROM)

She is child and adolescent psychiatrist and Head of the Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry at the University Clinic of Psychiatry, Skopje, Republic of Macedonia. She is a Professor of Psychiatry at the School of Medicine and Professor of Child and Adolescent Psychopathology at the Faculty of Philosophy (Institute of Psychology), at the Cyril and Methodius University, Skopje, Republic of Macedonia.

She is WHO National Coordinator for Violence Prevention and member of the two COST projects in psychiatry and child and adolescent psychiatry. She has either participated or conducted research on prevention of violence against children, including European projects and national projects as well among which are: Study on Adverse Childhood Experiences in Republic of Macedonia (2009-2010); Psych-CNV – Copy Number Variations conferring risk for early onset psychoses in children (2008-2012); BECAN—Balkan Epidemiological Study on Child Abuse and Neglect (2009-2013).

She is an author of more than hundred scientific papers, co-author in several books and monographs in Psychiatry.